Update: Implementation of the Complex Development Plan FY 2020

Given the prevailing market uncertainties brought about by the current pandemic, the proponent revisited the timing of their overall development program for CCP. Per advice, they are continuously monitoring the performance of their leasing operations and activities which is the core business of their group, and they are constantly on the lookout for upswings in the market. Meanwhile, they assured CCP that they will make the call to proceed with the project as soon as the market shows signs of recovering, hopefully by the end of this year, and they shall advise CCP accordingly.
